Berkeley County resident Kenneth Scarlett is the award-winning author of Victory Day, an in-depth account of the last 31 months of the Revolutionary War. Victory Day focuses on the defeat of the British Southern Strategy, centered in the Charleston area, which resulted in American Independence.

A recipient of the DAR Medal for Patriotism and the DAR America 250 Commendation Medal, Ken is the current president of Revolutionary Charleston 250. He earned a Master's Degree in Intelligence and Security from The Citadel Military College and a Business Management degree from USC's Darla School of Business.
